

I am a St. Louis Pediatrician with two young boys who were watching a SPORTS Superbowl (NOT A PORNOGRAPHIC BOWL!!). Don't rob me of my right as a parent to monitor what my children watch. We were caught off-guard and we lost our right as a parents to filter what our children watch. Afterall, this is the ONLY RIGHT I have since the FCC will allow so much nudity and pornography on daily television. Stunts like Janet Jackson's breast nudity is not only an OUTRAGE but also insulting the rights of parents across America. The CBS Superbowl Half-time show was a tasteless CBS/MTV production and I detest their claim that they had no knowlege of it. As a citizen,I am demanding MORE than an apology from CBS/MTV/Jackson/Timberlake. I would like to see all 4 penalized appropriately with maximal fines. CBS for airing it (a powerful station SHOULD have more control; shame on them if the Jackson family is in charge of their broadcasting!!) MTV for producing trash and well, Jackson (need more be said!). An Outraged Citizen, Parent and Football Fan,
Lori Buffa, M.D.
